CHANGING MINDS IS THE FIRST STEP TO CHANGING THE WORLD

According to AARP, nearly 90% of older Americans say they want to “age in place.”

“This is both foolish and unsustainable. We can do better. Aging is, and always has been, a team sport. The myth of ‘aging in place’ harms people by defining the decision to share one’s daily life with others as failure.”

– Dr. Bill Thomas

THE GOOD FIGHT

The social activists of the '60s swapped their protest signs for briefcases and sold out. Or so we've been told. What does the postwar generation really stand for today?
